

| Aim High Charitable Trust | Donation Form

Aim High Charitable Trust is a disability support service provider in Auckland. Aim High Education Centre runs a day service and holiday programme and the Aim High Café offers volunteering opportunities for people with disabilities. We aim to enhance the quality of life of people with intellectual disabilities by providing opportunities for learning and developing skills to participate and engage meaningfully in the local community.

Your generous regular support will help us to offer educational programmes and vocational training to people with disabilities. Whether you give a little or a lot, you contribute to our trust supporting people with disabilities and their families. 'Your donation makes a difference'.
